Kiteboarding Tricktionary - Twintip Supreme Edition By Julian Hosp, Thomas Burblies

Do you have your heart set on being the best Kiteboarder out there? Or, maybe you are just getting started and have not taken your first lesson yet. This hardcover book is packed tight with information within it's 421 pages of detailed instructions, that everyone can learn from. It's been broken down into three main categories: Superbasics - Built as a reference for schools and teaching, and providing advanced kiteboarding techniques for all riding levels and styles. Airstyle - Also known as Oldschool, hooked in jumping, flying and sliding. Newschool - Also known as Wakestyle, contains unhooked moves, starting with Raileys and Rolls, all the way through very complex handle passes. We've combined a wealth of knowledge from professional kiteboarders from different countries and disciplines. Each rider supported by various brands, performing precise movements with the absolute best possible style, in order to make it possible to analyze, visualize, and describe each movement in detail. Some of the riders featured in this book include: Thomas Burblies (a.k.a. Beany) Kevin Langeree, Youri Zoon, Victoria Soloveykina, to name a few. This book is a one stop resource for everything one needs to know about kiteboarding. When it comes to learning kiteboarding, these moves can happen in the blink of an eye. Tricktionary uses step by step photos and detailed explanations, to give you the tools to master your next challenge. There is also a handy troubleshooting (problem/solution) area, for common mistakes. Please keep in mind, we do not recommend you learn to kiteboard without a proper instructor, but this will get you prepared for your first lesson, and then it will help guide you, all the way to the top. Increase your learning curve, but please, ALWAYS take lessons before you try kiteboarding on you own. THIS BOOK IS IN ENGLISH.
