Tequila Sunset (A Last Call Story) By Moira Rogers

Detective and werewolf Zack Elliott visits Last Call to satisfy his need to dominate, but it doesn't satisfy his unrequited love for a woman he can't have. Still, he's managed to keep his desire for her under control...until a chance encounter in their apartment building sends him back to the bar for relief.

Tequila Sunset: Looking for submission.

Iris has spent the last two decades living a strict life of self-denial as New York City's only demon social worker. She lives in fear of the power inside her, and the dark needs that tempted her down a dangerous road before. But love and need are leading her down that path again, and her only hope is to give in to the man she loves and trust that he's strong enough to keep her safe from the darkness inside.

***
Last Call #4.5 (While originally published as After Hours #1, this story should be considered a Last Call off-shoot, telling the story of Zack, the dominant wolf featured in Tequila Sunrise.)
Genre: Romantic Paranormal Erotica
Length: 10,000 words
This title was originally published in 2008 and has been reissued by the author at a reduced price.
